

WAY DOWN EAST.

William A. Brady's production of the New England comedy, "Way Down East" has proven to be one of the biggest successes yet recorded at McVicker's Theatre, Chicago, where the play has been running already seven weeks to such crowds that hundreds of people have been turned away at every performance.

"Way Down East" will be at Macauley's theatre the week of October 15th, with the same big production that was presented for 427 times in New York City, and direct from McVicker's Theatre, Chicago, where the past seven weeks it has been presented 72 times to nearly $95,000. It is said that over 180,000 people have witnessed the various performances; it was by far the greatest success financially as well as artistically of any play ever presented in the Windy City, exceeding by many thousands the great business of "Sporting Life," "The Red Ruby" and "Quo Vadis." The demand for seats the closing week was so great that two performances were given each day by two separate and distinct companies.

The play tells a story so simple and yet so powerful that it appeals to everybody at once. The pathos is, however, only one side of the picture, for the quaint New England characters who flit about the stage provide plenty of the element of humor to relieve the tension and give opportunity for hearty laughter. There is the bashful Boston professor, always doing the wrong thing, and so absent-minded and diffident that he puts his overshoes on his sweetheart's tiny feet, and tries to get her dainty cap over his head; Hi Holler, the other boy, whose infectious laugh and bovine disposition bring him right into the heart sympathy; Martha Perkins, the gossip, who rolls a bit of scandal on her tongue as though it were the most delicious morsel; Seth Holcomb, the rheumatic admirer of Martha's, whose devotion is finally rewarded with a promise of her hand; Rube Whipple, the constable, funny and quaint, with the famous song, "All Bound Round With a Woolen String," and the members of the village choir. These characters represent the comic side of the picture, while Anna Moore, Squire Bartlett and his wife, David, their son, Kate Brewster and Sanderson provide dramatic interest.

Mr. Brady has given the play the handsomest setting ever seen in the West, including the cows, calves, horses, sheep, chickens, ducks, pigeons, and a barn yard in its entirety.

It is exasperating to one who has used Foley's Honey and Tar and knows what it will do, to have a dealer recommend something else as "just the same" or "just as good." There is nothing just as good for colds, coughs, croup, lagrippe, etc. South and Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

TEDDY TO DINE HERE.

An invitation has been extended to Gov. Theodore Roosevelt by the Republican members of the Legislature and the citizens of this city to stop off here and take dinner tomorrow, as he passes through on his way to Lexington. The invitation was telegraphed to him at Evansville, Indiana, yesterday morning, but no reply had been received up to the time we went to press.

Don't be humbugged or deceived by people who claim the discovery of some hitherto unknown herb or root in swamps, or on some mountain or prairie, for the cure of kidney and bladder troubles. Any doctor or druggist will tell you that such claims are fraudulent. Foley's Kidney Cure simply contains remedies that are recognized by the most skillful physicians as the best for these complaints, so don't be credulous or foolish. South and Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

DEATH OF CAPT. W. S. B. HILL.

After a severe illness of several weeks Capt. W. S. B. Hill, Sergeant-at-Arms of the Court of Appeals, died at his home, corner of Third and Main streets, this city, on Wednesday night, at 11:30 o'clock, aged 63 years.

Capt. Hill was a pleasant, agreeable and manly gentleman; a brave and gallant soldier in the Confederate Army and a devoted member of the Catholic Church.

He leaves a heart-broken wife and six children—three sons and three daughters, all grown—to mourn his death.

The funeral services were conducted from the Church of the Good Shepherd, at 11 o'clock a. m. yesterday, by Rev. Father Major, after which the remains were deposited in the Catholic Cemetery.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine, and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by J. W. Gayle, Druggist.

DOWN WITH FEVER.

We regret to learn that Mr. Will H. Hawkins and three of his children are down with typhoid fever, at his residence near Bridgeport. Mr. Hawkins is the Assessor of this county, and is one of the cleverest men in it. Everybody likes jolly "Billy" Hawkins and sympathizes with him. His illness comes at the worst possible time for him.

IT HEALS THE LUNGS.

When suffering from a hacking cough take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced. South and Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

The wolf in the fable put on sheep's clothing because if he traveled on his own reputation he couldn't accomplish his purpose. Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their worthless salves on their merits so they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's. Look out for them. Take only DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures piles and all skin diseases. South & Longmoor, W. McKee Hardie.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever, that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected soon to die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now I am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.
